[About ICCNSE2024]

2025 International Conference on Communication Networks and Software Engineering (ICCNSE 2025) will be held on March 28-30, 2025 in Bangkok, Thailand. This conference aims to provide a comprehensive global forum for experts and scholars to share their latest research findings, ideas, and developments in the fields of communication networks and software engineering.

ICCNSE 2025 invites researchers, engineers, and industry professionals to engage in dynamic discussions and to foster collaborations that will drive advancements in these critical technological domains. The conference will feature keynote speeches, technical sessions, workshops, and poster presentations, creating a rich platform for knowledge exchange and professional networking.
